Thank you for your most recent letter requesting a videotaped interview with our Director William J. Casey or a high ranking Agency member for your educational series on government leaders.

As a member of my staff mentioned on the telephone, we have reconsidered your request and commend you on your creative idea to encourage intellectual stimulation in the classroom. However, it is impossible for us to provide you with either the Director or a high ranking official for you to interview. We do have a ten minute unclassified tape on the Central Intelligence Agency, but according to our conversation with you this would not fit in with your program.

Again we are sorry not to be able to accommodate Fort Hays State University. Best wishes in your endeavor.

Sincerely,

George W. Lauder
Director, Public Affairs
